PREAMBLE

The Toquaht Nation asserts that we have, since time immemorial, governed ourselves according to our traditions and protocols. With our inherent right to self-government recognized in the Maa-nulth Treaty and our Constitution, we have blended our traditional ways with modern-day governing systems which recognize the rule of law. In doing so, we honour our past and embrace the future, ensuring the continued existence of the Toquaht Nation as a strong political, social and cultural community.

Governing effectively requires not only enacting necessary Toquaht law, but properly enforcing Toquaht law. Effective enforcement of our laws honours our traditions while securing our future. For the effective enforcement of our laws, the Toquaht Nation desires a just, fair and robust framework for law enforcement for the common good of all Toquaht citizens that embraces our traditions and protocols and adheres to the rule of law.

The Toquaht Nation adopts this Act based on these values.
